

New to Rural Practice? There's a Forum for That!

What: Rookie Rural Doc Discussion Forum

Audience: Physicians new to rural practice in the last 2-3 years and senior residents planning to practice in a rural community

Description: A discussion platform to facilitate networking for this group. A forum to ask questions such as working with your team, navigating questions from neighbors and friends, teaching as a new doc, and more.

How to Join: SIGN UP HERE

Once you join the forum, look for the Rookie Rural Doc category.

For Questions: Contact Kara Traxler at rttc-ad@rttcollaborative.net.
