

NIPDD Rural Fellows Scholarship Announcement 2018-2019

The RTT Collaborative Board and the cooperative of rural programs the Collaborative represents is happy to offer three scholarships for the National Institute for Program Director Development fellowship program in academic year 2018-2019. Any director, site director, or faculty of a currently accredited or developing rural program is encouraged to apply.<sup>1</sup> The NIPDD programs is described further at <http://www.afmrd.org/page/about-the-nipdd-fellowship>, including this year's schedule of the three in-person sessions that are a part of the program.

This RTT Collaborative scholarship includes the $5,500 cost of fellowship registration only. Recipients are responsible for their own travel and lodging costs throughout the year and their programs are responsible for providing release time to attend the required sessions. The NIPDD registration fee does not include registration for The RTT Collaborative Annual Meeting (see below).

Application materials

To apply please forward the following to longenec@ohio.edu:

- A letter of application, addressing eligibility criteria, making the individual case for your receiving this scholarship, and agreeing to the required deliverables below
- Letter of support from responsible individual (preferably the DIO in your institution) promising you release time to fulfill the meeting requirements for this fellowship

In choosing the recipients of this scholarship, preference will be given for:

1. Physician faculty from an actively participating program in The RTT Collaborative
2. Program Director, PD in development, Site director, or Associate PD of any rural program (see definition)

Applicants will be notified of their eligibility by July 1, 2018, and will be placed on a priority notification list so that they can apply to NIPDD when the fellowship application opens in early July.

Expectations/Deliverables:

- Applicants selected for this scholarship must apply to NIPDD when applications to NIPDD open in early July 2018 and must be accepted into the program. The RTT Collaborative will then pay the registration fee.
- Recipients of this scholarship are expected to attend all required NIPDD sessions and complete NIPDD requirements for 2018-2019
- By the time of the RTT Collaborative Annual Meeting, recipients must provide to The RTT Collaborative a copy of both the financial project and the academic project that are required for successful completion of the NIPDD fellowship
- Recipients are expected to attend and present their academic project at The RTT Collaborative Annual Meeting in Lewiston, Maine, May 15-17, 2019. Scholarship recipients automatically qualify for a reduced registration fee to The RTT Collaborative meeting and will receive preference for a travel and meeting allowance for participation in the Rural Health Professions Design and Dissemination Studio if offered again through Rural PREP this coming year.

Deadline for application: June 15, 2018

For more information or questions about the application process or to apply, contact Dr. Randall Longenecker, Executive Director of The RTT Collaborative at longenec@ohio.edu.
